Pantheo Luxury Residences - Gated complex in St. Raphael, Limassol

Vlad Stoletniy · Friday, January 25th, 2019

Pantheo Luxury Residences comprise 10 three bedroom detached villas, each uniquely designed and including a private pool, extensive verandas and gardens providing residents spaces in which to relax during the long hot summer days.

Currently one 5-bedroom villa is available at this project.

Spaciousness and luxury are the keynotes of the project. The plots for each villa range between 300 and 800 square metres, while total covered areas vary from 160 to 300 square metres. Exteriors and interiors have been carefully designed featuring a predominantly Mediterranean style of architecture and there is no compromise in terms of modern conveniences and high technology provisions. All villas are guaranteed a magical view of Cyprus' magnificent golden sunsets,

Due to the desirable location, Pantheo Luxury Residences offer buyers the opportunity to own an exclusive Cyprus property - which represents a solid investment and is ideal for permanent or vacation residence - with a guarantee of tranquillity in this remarkable place.

Pantheo Luxury Residences are situated in an exclusive area which is much sought-after and which has high potential. It is adjacent to the eastern beachfront of Limassol and near one of the most significant historical sites in Cyprus, the ancient town of Amathusa. The area combines the spirit of the sea with the magic of mountains, as it is located only 100 metres from Limassol's enchanting sandy beaches and just a short drive from attractive, lush green mountainsides.

Some of the most exclusive and prestigious hotels of Limassol - including the St. Rafael Resort, which has the only marina in the region - are in close proximity to this exciting development, placing Pantheo Luxury Residences amongst the most select and outstanding of properties in the district.

On approaching Pantheo Luxury Residences, one can enjoy the attractive Mediterranean coastal views. Amenities including supermarkets, post office, banks, restaurants and other stores are within walking distance of this outstanding development. The location is approximately 45 minutes drive from the island's two airports, while the city of Limassol - just a few minutes drive away - is the second largest, and the most vibrant city in Cyprus with its perfect combination of culture, entertainment and business.
